The African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (ACHPR) has received technical assistance from The Open Society Foundations (OSF), through an implementing partner – The Institute for Human Rights and Development in Africa (IHRDA). OSF works globally to build vibrant and tolerant democracies whose governments are accountable and open to the participation of all people. Its work is committed to Expression, Justice and Equity, with cross-cutting work around climate and intersectional justice. OSF-Africa seeks to advance similar priorities on the continent, rooted in and framed from an African perspective to meet present-day, interconnected challenges to open society. OSF-Africa's vision is to build a globally respected, vibrant, and integrated Africa, characterized by democratic governance, sustainable development, and economic systems that deliver more just, inclusive, and accountable outcomes with and for the people and the environment in Africa.

The mandate of the ACHPR spans all generations of rights – civil and political rights, economic, social and cultural rights, group rights and the right to development, and encompasses all categories of beneficiaries – including women, children, persons with disability, older persons etc. The ACHPR comprises 11 independent experts who serve part-time, with a full-time Secretariat in Banjul, The Gambia.
